

GENERAL FAQ

Q. What is the Film Bazaar? Why should I attend it?

A. Film Bazaar is South Asia's largest film market. It encourages creative and financial collaboration between the South Asian and International film communities. Created and organized by the National Film Development Corporation (NFDC), Film Bazaar has evolved into South Asia's global film market from its humble beginnings in 2007. Every edition witnesses increased national and international participation. Over the years, films such as Lunch Box, Margarita With A Straw, Chauthi Koot, Qissa, Ship of Theseus, Titli, Court, Anhe Ghode Da Daan, Miss Lovely, Dum Lagake Haisha, Liar's Dice and Thithi have been through one or more programs of the Bazaar.

Over the course of five days, Film Bazaar becomes the converging point for film buyers and sellers from all over the world with a focus on discovering, supporting and showcasing South Asian content and talent in filmmaking, production and distribution. The Bazaar also facilitates the sales of world cinema in the South Asian region.

Q. Is Film Bazaar the same as International Film Festival of India (IFFI)?

A. The Film Bazaar is a film market and is not the same as the International Film Festival of India (IFFI). Film Bazaar is organized annually alongside IFFI, and Film Bazaar delegates can access screenings at IFFI for an additional fee, subject to availability of tickets.

If you have paid an additional fee, you will be able to get access to the IFFI arena with your Film Bazaar Card. You are not required to get an additional IFFI Card.
