

EXHIBITION STALLS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. How do I rent a virtual stall at Film Bazaar Online?

A. Please write to promotion@filmbazaarindia.com to request for a 3D virtual exhibition stall at Film Bazaar Online. Stalls are available on a first come first served basis and their booking will therefore depend on availability.

Q. What am I allowed to exhibit in the virtual stall?

A. On booking a virtual stalls space you can customize with branding, upload e-brochure, video, link to your website. You can also start video chat with delegates who visit the e-stall.

Q. What is included in the stall fee?

A. The stall price includes –

1. A stall of the art 3D virtual stall space at Film Bazaar Online
2. Complimentary accreditation for two participants from the same company
3. Company listing in the digital Market Guide.

B. How do I register myself after I have paid for the stall?

A. Once you have made the payment towards the stall booking, you need to send us the names and email ids of the 2 people who will receive the complimentary accreditation for Film Bazaar Online. We will share a link where they can register themselves by filling out all the mandatory fields. Once that is done, they will receive an email confirming that they have been registered as delegates for Film Bazaar.

Q. On registering for Film Bazaar Online and booking a stall space will I get access to the guest list to be able to understand my target audience in a better way?

A. Yes. As a registered delegate for Film Bazaar you will gain complete access to other registered guests at the market. You shall be given a username and password on registration, which you can use to access your profile as well as view the profiles of other registered delegates. In case of any further queries, please write to us on promotion@filmbazaarindia.com with email subject - 'Booking of Stall'.

You can download the Rental Contract (pdf) here.

The above contract includes a form and terms and conditions that need to be filled by you or your company, containing details that need to be entered pertaining to the booking of your stall. You may email the completed Rental Contract to us on promotion@filmbazaarindia.com with the email subject – 'Stall Rental Contract'.

Q. How do I find out my booth number and/or where I am located on the show floor?

A. The booth numbers will be allotted to the Exhibitors by the representative of NFDC Film Bazaar Handling Stalls and Promotions.

Q. How do I register my exhibitor booth personnel?

A. There are two exhibitor batches which will be complimentary with the exhibitor stall. The name of the booth personnel, their picture and the contact details needs to be e-mailed to promotion@filmbazaarindia.com before the Bazaar starts. In case the Exhibitor wants to register their personnel on-site, he/she can do it separately.

Q. What is a Market guide listing and how do I make sure my company is listed properly?

A. A Market Guide is a directory listing of the contact information and product categories that will be published both on the Film Bazaar website and the Market Guide soft copy. It's a key tool for promoting your company, product or services to attendees during and after the market. The final deadline for entering your information to be included in the printed Market Guide is 31 December 2020
