

Exhibitor Stalls

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How do I rent a virtual stall at Film Bazaar Online?

A. Stalls are available on a first come first served basis and their booking will therefore depend on availability. Please write to promotion@filmbazaarindia.com to request for a 3D virtual exhibition stall at Film Bazaar Online.

You can download the Rental Contract (pdf) here.

The above contract includes a form and terms and conditions that need to be filled by you or your company, containing details that need to be entered pertaining to the booking of your stall.

Q. What am I allowed to exhibit in the virtual stall?

A. On booking a virtual stalls space you can customize with branding, upload e-brochure, video, link to your website. You can also start video chat with delegates who visit the e-stall.

Q. When can we see our virtual stall?

A. The set-up of the virtual stall will be complete and ready by 19th November, 2021. NFDC team will arrange a demo call to explain the usage of the 3D virtual stall to the representatives.

Q. What is the fee for stall booking and what is included in the stall fee?

A. The booking fee per stall is INR 40,000, inclusive of all taxes. The stall fee includes –

- A state of the art 3D virtual stall space
- Complimentary accreditation for three participants from the same company
- Company and participants listing in the digital Market Guide.
- Access to e-market guide containing contact list of all Film Bazaar 2021 attendee.

Q. When can we see our virtual stall?

A. The set-up of the virtual stall will be complete and ready by 19th November, 2021. NFDC team will arrange a demo call to explain the usage of the 3D virtual stall to the representatives.

The Exhibitors can login in on 20th Nov, 2021.

Q. How do I register my virtual stall personnel?

A. There are three complementary delegate registrations offered with every exhibitor stall booking. The name of the stall personnel, their photo and their email-id details needs to be e-mailed to promotion@filmbazaarindia.com along with the stall contract. The delegate registration team will share the login credentials with all delegates to complete their registration.

In case the Exhibitor wants to register their personnel on-site, he/she can do it separately.

Q. What is a Market Guide listing and how do I make sure my company is listed properly?

A. A Market Guide is a directory listing of the contact information and product categories that will be published both on the Film Bazaar website and as a PDF file available for download by registered delegates. It's a key tool for promoting your company, product or services to attendees during and after the market. The final deadline for entering your information to be included in the PDF Market Guide is 05 November 2021.

Q. How do we get an access to the Delegate List/E-Market Guide?

A. All representative will need to complete their delegate registration form. The E-Market Guide/Delegate list is located in your myfilmbazaar account. Please use your login details to login to your myfilmbazaar account to access it.

We recommend you start using the the E-Market Guide and reach out to the attending delegates. You can email your target audience to come and visit your virtual stall on the Film Bazaar days i.e. November 20-25, 2021.

Q. How do I register myself after I have paid for the stall?

A. Once you have made the payment towards the stall booking, you need to send us the names and email id's of the three representatives who will receive the complimentary accreditation for Film Bazaar Online. The delegate registration team will share the login credentials along with a link where they can register themselves by filling out all the mandatory fields.

As the delegates registration is per-approved the representatives information will appear in the e-market guide as soon as the delegate registration form is completed.

Q. On registering for Film Bazaar Online and booking a stall space will I get access to the guest list to be able to understand my target audience in a better way?

A. Yes. As a registered delegate for Film Bazaar you will gain complete access to other registered guests at the market. You shall be given a username and password on registration, which you can use to access your profile as well as view the profiles of other registered delegates. In case of any further queries, please write to us on - promotion@filmbazaarindia.com .